

CELEBRITY WATCH

November 11, 2005 - The Indiana Pacers were checking out the Milwaukee Street scene. Superstar Jermaine O'Neal looked like a museum display behind the glass of the VIP Room dripping in diamonds from head to toe. Ron Artest dined on hot and teryaki chicken wings from Kenadee's. Stephan Jackson and Fred Jones conversed with friends while Samaki Walker talked and laughed with Latrell Sprewell in the upper club area. Also, Center Jeff Austin was seen in the house mingling with patrons in the lower martini lounge level.

November 19, 2005 - Saturday: Milwaukee native and R&B singer Eric Benet , Former husband of Halle Berry, dined at Sake Tumi and then took over the VIP room with his producers and management team at Eve. He hit the dance for a few songs then headed downstairs to talk to a few fans. Let's Get It Started! That's what people were saying as the Black Eyed Peas made there way to the dance floor, in the house briefly with a few members of Gwen Stefani's band. They were in town for Stefani's Harajuku Lovers tour at the Bradley Center.

November 22, 2005 - Tuesday: You have questions, we have answers. Well, just one. Philadelphia 76ers guard Allen "The Answer" Iverson was chillin in Kenadee's with his crew which included Roc-a Fella recording recording artist, Sparks. They held down the back tables eating a few selections off the menu while watching a few games on the plasma screens above the bar.

December 9, 2005 - Friday: The King is in the building! Not Elvis, LeBron. LeBron "King James" brought his Cleveland Cavaliers teammates to Eve. James and Larry Hughes held down the VIP, while Damon Jones and Drew Gooden walked among the crowd. By the way LeBron scored 52 points on the Bucks the next day- Ouch! But we still won.

December 10, 2005 - Saturday: Milwaukee Bucks Jamaal Magloire and Reece Gaines relaxed at Eve after there 111-106 win over Cleveland.

December 17, 2005- Saturday: Members of the Utah Jazz were spotted dining at Carnevor's VIP party. Devin Brown, Keith McLeod, Milt Palacio, Deron Williams, Andre Kirilenke, Jarron Collins and Kris Humphries tasted serveral items of the menu before heading to party at Eve.
