Milwaukee Street went out with a bang in 2008. Here is how they did it....

Friday, November 7th, 2008 – The Boston Celtics were spotted hanging out at Apartment 720 after their victory over the Bucks, 101-89.

Friday, November 14th, 2008 – Joel Madden of Good Charlotte, who is also dating Nicole Ritchie was spotted dining at Carnevor with a few friends from Milwaukee. He was later seen taking pictures in the VIP at Apartment 720 with friends and fans and then rocked it out from the DJ Booth as the special guest DJ for the night.

Wednesday, November 19th, 2008 – VH1 Reality Superstar, Megan Hauserman, from Rock of Love, Charm School, and I Love Money was seen dining at Carnevor before heading over to host WT Wednesday at Kenadee's. She is currently filming her next VH1 Reality Show which will air in the spring.

Friday, December 5th, 2008 – Lindsay Lohan was seen hanging out in the DJ booth at Apartment 720 as her girlfriend, Samantha Ronson, was the special guest DJ for the night. This was one CRAZY night! No one thought the Lindsay Lohan was going to show up. But when she did the whole dance floor turned into the paparazzi with flashes going off everywhere. It was blinding from the DJ booth. Apartment 720 also had up-and-coming recording artist D.A. Wallach of the music group Chester French in the house. He was spotted hanging out with Lindsay and Samantha in the DJ Booth. Chester French just signed with Interscope Records and the CD drops February.

Friday, December 12th, 2008 – Aubrey O'Day of Danity Kane partied the night away as she drank P.I.N.K. vodka in the VIP while special guest DJ Skribble spun his latest remixes at Apartment 720. Miss O'Day also made her way to the DJ booth and made a few shout outs to Milwaukee and a very special Happy Birthday to one lucky guest. P.S. Check out the March issue of Playboy. Miss O'Day herself will be on the cover.
