April 28, 2006 Friday - Detroit Pistons Antonio McDyess, Lindsay Hunter and Tayshan Prince watched the other playoff games in the lower level of Carnevor while eating dinner. Los Angeles Clippers guard Sam Cassell caught wind that the players were in the building and he picked up their check. With a message saying 'see you in the finals'. Also Green Bay Packer Mark Tauscher enjoyed dinner with friends and family at Carnevor as well. Pistons Assistant coach Ron Harper and center Dale Davis were seen in Eve.

April 29, 2006 Saturday - Wow!! Tonight was wall to wall packed at Eve and Tangerine. Tangerine hosted a charity event with a few members from the Green Bay Packers. Santana Dotson, Gilbert Brown, Bubba Franks, Najae Davenport and Donald Driver were a few of Packers that participated in the event at Tang. Over at Eve the Bucks came out to celebrate their victory over the Detroit Pistons. Jamaal Magloire, T.J. Ford and Charlie Bell were in the house. As well as Detroit Pistons stars Rasheed Wallace, Chauncy Billups, Lindsay Hunter, Tayshan Prince and Ben Wallace. Former Milwaukee Buck Marques Hayslip was in the building. Latrell Sprewell was joking with some of the Pistons players. Also, Detroit Pistons President Joe Dumars dined with the team owner at Carnevor.

We'll that's it for now, I would like to congratulate Carnevor for being named one of the 20 hottest new places in America by Hospitality Design Magazine. If you haven't dined there yet make a reservation it's worth it.

Alex Wilson and his band are now playing LIVE every Wednesday at Kenadees. Latrell Sprewell was seen listening to the group while enjoying a meal. So far the reviews on the street have been excellent!

Until Next Time!
